

MARY COLBERT

Mary is a graduate of Rhema Bible School, a former Board of Regents member at Oral Roberts University and vice president of Divine Health Nutritional Company.

ABOUT MARY

In her book "Prayer That Changes Everything," Mary Colbert outlines five principles of prayer and faith inspired by a profound personal experience she describes as a divine appointment with God. This transformative encounter not only deepened her understanding of prayer but also ignited a passion within her to share this knowledge with others.

Motivated by divine inspiration, Mary Colbert developed the five principles of prayer, which are not just designed to empower individuals, but also to foster a deeper, more personal connection with God. These principles emphasize the importance of faith, the power of persistent prayer, the need for a personal connection with God, the impact of praying with intention, and the transformative effect of aligning one's prayers with God's will.

Mary's mission has taken her message across the globe, where she speaks to diverse audiences about the life-changing potential of prayer. Through her global outreach, she aims to inspire people from all walks of life to embrace a daily practice of prayer, encouraging them to experience the same divine connection and transformative power she has encountered. Her teachings emphasize that a life rooted in prayer can lead to profound personal growth and a deeper sense of purpose, ultimately changing the world one prayer at a time.
